when yugoslavia disintegrated in the early 1990s competence in english was not widespread this book explores how english came to be equated with economic survival for many during and after the ensuing war through a range of diverse social and professional contexts from the classroom to the military to the international criminal court while english provided social mobility for many its abrupt arrival also contributed to the marginalization of those without the adequate language skills the high level of international intervention in bosnia and herzegovina over the last two decades has contributed to a sense of normalization of the presence of english viewed as a far more complex issue than simple linguistic imposition this book explores the widespread adoption of english and its effects on a nation recovering from war this book is a volume in the penn press anniversary collection to mark its 125th anniversary in 2015 the university of pennsylvania press rereleased more than 1 100 titles from penn press s distinguished backlist from 1899 1999 that had fallen out of print spanning an entire century the anniversary collection offers peer reviewed scholarship in a wide range of subject areas this white paper is part of a series that promotes knowledge about language technology and its potential it addresses educators journalists politicians language communities and others the availability and use of language technology in europe varies between languages consequently the actions that are required to further support research and development of language technologies also differ for each language the required actions depend on many factors such as the complexity of a given language and the size of its community meta net a network of excellence funded by the european commission has conducted an analysis of current language resources and technologies this analysis focused on the 23 official european languages as well as other important national and regional languages in europe the results of this analysis suggest that there are many significant research gaps for each language a more detailed expert analysis and assessment of the current situation will help maximise the impact of additional research and minimize any risks meta net consists of 54 research centres from 33 countries that are working with stakeholders from commercial businesses government agencies industry research organisations software companies technology providers and european universities together they are creating a common technology vision while developing a strategic research agenda that shows how language technology applications can address any research gaps by 2020
